1. Back up first

- [ ] Save your full subscription list before you remove anything.
  It is the safety net that makes the rest of the clean-up risk-free.
  YouTube Subscription Backup
- [ ] Keep the backup file somewhere you will find it again.

2. Review in bulk

- [ ] See your subscriptions with when each channel last uploaded.
  YouTube Subscription Analyzer
- [ ] Select inactive channels to remove, and pin the ones you want to keep.
  A channel with no recent upload is only a hint. Check any you are unsure about.
  YouTube Subscription Cleaner
- [ ] Review the list once more before you confirm, especially small channels you follow on purpose.

3. Organize what is left

- [ ] Group channels into themes so your feed is easier to browse.

  YouTube Subscription Organizer

- [ ] Decide which channels deserve notifications and which should stay quiet.

4. Move or restore

- [ ] Changed your mind? Restore removed channels from the backup.

  YouTube Subscription Restore

- [ ] Moving to a new account? Copy your subscriptions across.

  YouTube Subscription Transfer

- [ ] Set a reminder to repeat the clean-up in six months.
